

NEIGHBORS WHO BORROW

LENGTH, 493 FEET.

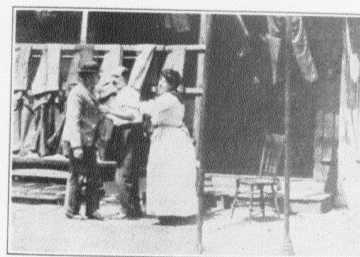

PRICE, ~~554.23~~
$54.23

Mr. Jones is a good hearted fellow. When one of his neighbors asks for the loan of the side-board and all the cut glass Mr. Jones lends it to him. Bye and bye all the neighbors ask to borrow something, until at last the house is stripped bare from cellar to roof. Even the baby has been borrowed. When Mrs. Jones comes home and sees the neighbors carrying away her household goods she makes them bring everything back, but oh! how this was done. Now starts a chase after the baby, which is the funniest thing ever seen. At last, the baby is found but poor Mr. Jones gets his.

COPYRIGHT 1907.

COHEN'S

BAD LUCK

S. LUBIN

LARGEST MANUFACTURER OF

FILMS, SLIDES, STEREOPTICON AND LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES

19-21 SOUTH EIGHTH ST.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

COHEN'S BAD LUCK.

COPYRIGHT 1907.

Length, 425 Feet.

Price, $46.75.

Mr. Cohen is waiting for customers. With the assistance of Mrs. Cohen he "pulls one in". It is funny indeed to see how Cohen tries to make the suit fit. At last the customer is satisfied, but, instead of paying for the suit, he dashes out of the store, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Cohen.

The thief runs through streets and alleys, followed by half a dozen policemen and a mob of several hundred people. When collared at last, he jumps into the river. He is pulled out, but, behold the new suit! It is shrunk so badly that even Cohen cannot sell it any more.

No money, no suit, bad luck indeed!

COPYRIGHT, 1907.

CAUGHT

With

The

GOODS

S. LUBIN

Largest Manufacturer of

Life Motion Picture Machines and Films

19-21 SOUTH EIGHTH STREET

PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.